Trinity Lutheran Church is a Congregation of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA). What Does That Mean?

"Evangelical"

In the Lutheran tradition, "evangelical" comes from the Reformation and refers to a church shaped by the evangel—the good news of Jesus Christ. It reflects core Reformation convictions such as:

- Salvation by the grace of God alone
- Scripture (the Bible) as our sole source of authority
- Scripture and worship in the language of the people
- A focus on God's love and mercy rather than human merit

"Lutheran"

Lutheran churches trace their roots to the 16th-century Reformation sparked by Martin Luther in Germany. Lutheranism spread throughout Northern Europe, especially Germany and the Scandinavian and Baltic countries. The ELCA is considered a "main line" Protestant denomination. With that, we have close relationships with the Episcopal Church, United Methodist Church, Presbyterian Church (USA), and United Church of Christ. Lutherans believe in finding unity with others based on our shared love of the Gospel. Today, the ELCA has approximately 3 million members.

"Church"

We are a community at our core. We gather every Sunday to hear the word of God and share in worship, but we also show up for each other in other ways. We go to each other's dance recitals and musical performances. We throw baby showers and celebrate birthdays. We come together to serve members of our community. We play board games and study the Bible together. God is at the center of our lives, but we love each other in Christian community.

"In America"

The ELCA is the largest Lutheran denomination in the United States, but we have relationships with other Lutherans all over the world as members of the Lutheran World Federation. Together, we respond more effectively to issues of hunger, natural disasters, and people facing all types of need.

WHAT ARE WE READING?

The Screwtape Letters by C.S. Lewis

C.S. Lewis's The Screwtape Letters has entertained and enlightened readers the world over with its sly and ironic portrayal of human life and foibles from the unique vantage point of Screwtape, a highly placed assistant to "Our Father Below." At once wildly comic, deadly serious, and strikingly original, C.S. Lewis gives us the correspondence of the wordly-wise devil to his nephew Wormwood, a novice demon in charge of securing the damnation of an ordinary young man. The Screwtape Letters is the most engaging account of temptation, and triumph over it, ever written.

The middle School Youth Gathering is back at the Great Wolf Lodge in Garden Grove, CA From November 6 to November 8. We will be having 4 youth attending along with adult volunteer Dawn Piccoli. Below are a few of the events happening at the Gathering.

"Fandom Friday" on Friday night. Bring your favorite fandom gear (Marvel, DnD, Gravity Falls, My Hero Academia, Pokémon, etc.) and wear it for the opening session and hotel nightlife!

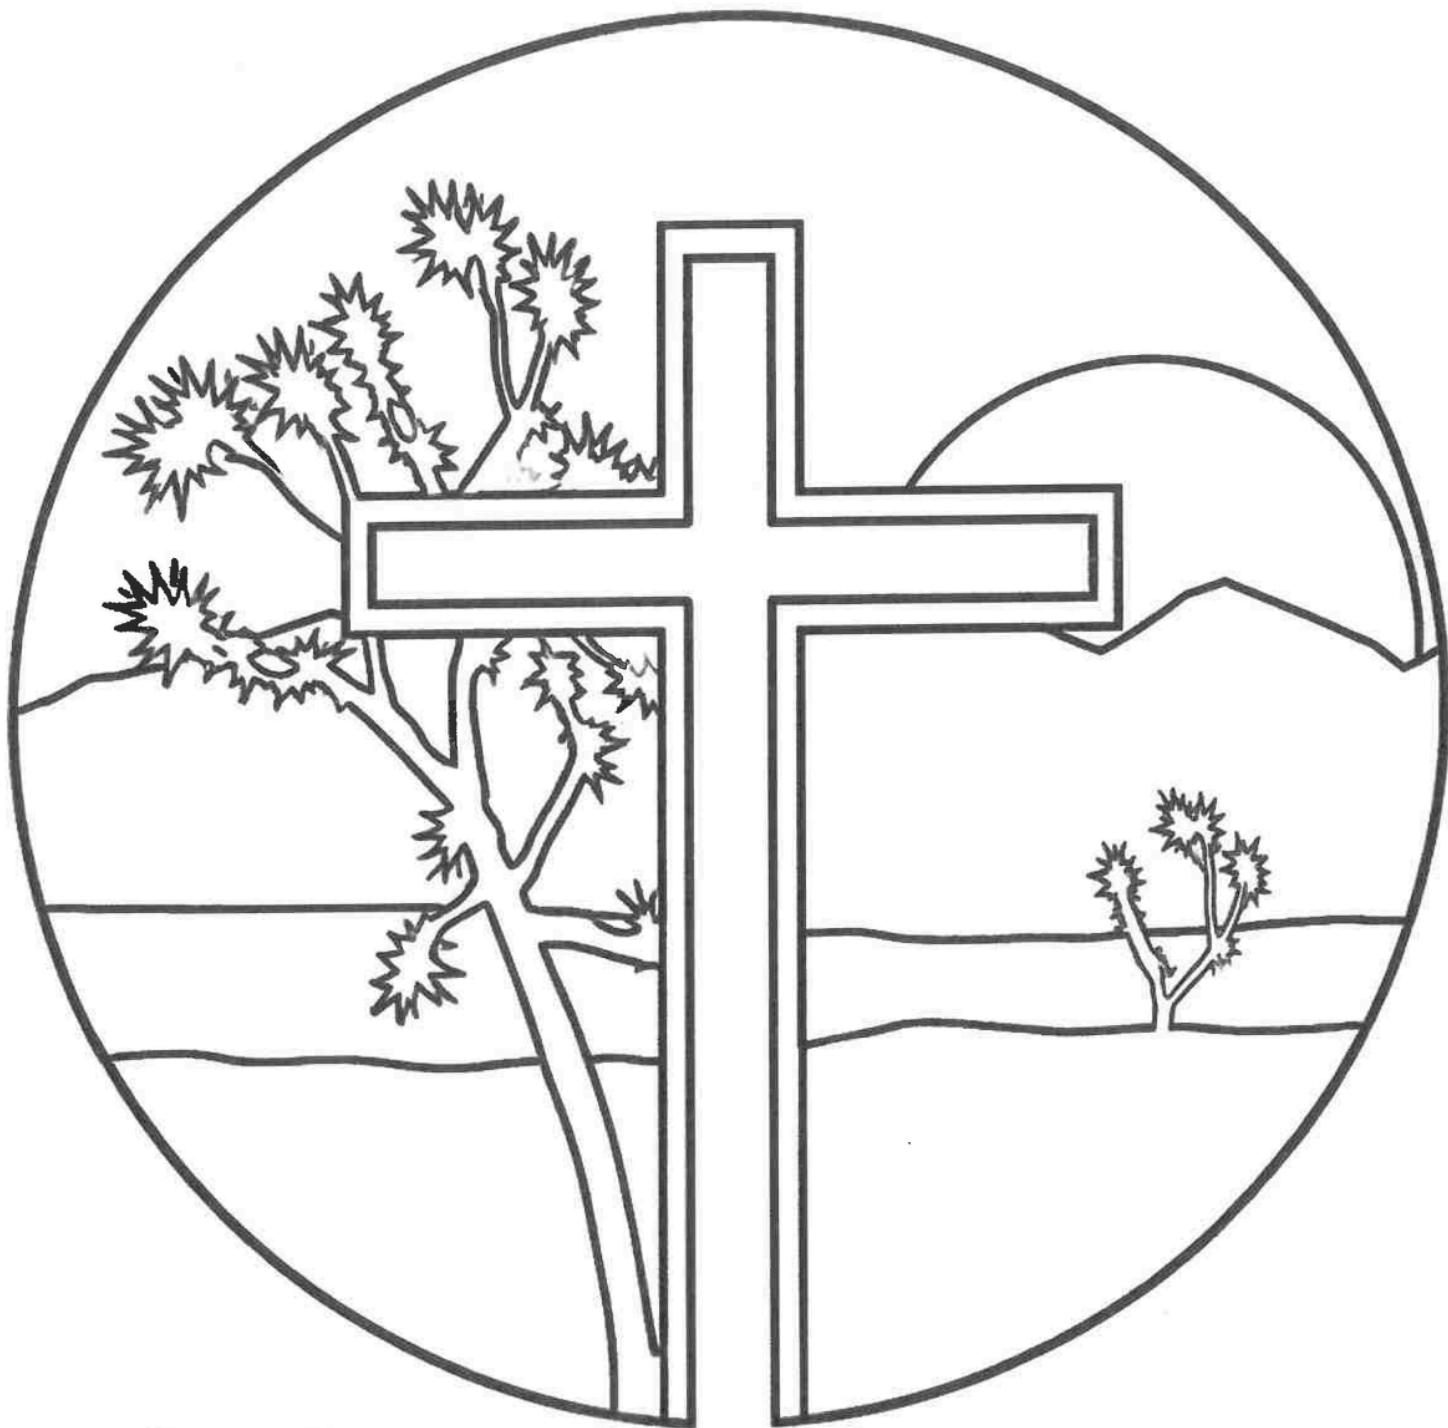

On Saturday morning we will be welcoming the team from Game Masters for Hire from Los Angeles to host us for a live Role-Playing Game Experience! Your input will help determine which way the story goes, and who will be the victor in this one-of-a-kind adventure!

Then on Sunday morning, we will have communion together and support each other on all of our faith adventures.
